Apollo Health Street Launches Coding for Reimbursement Solutions

Conshohocken, Penn. – Apollo Health Street, a developer of world-class solutions that tackle healthcare's toughest financial and IT challenges, is expanding their hospital revenue cycle management solutions by launching a service line to help meet the essential needs of hospitals, medical practices, and freestanding ambulatory surgical centers so they are able to focus on their core mission of quality patient care.

Apollo's service line – Coding for Reimbursement Solutions – supports the healthcare providers by working their backlog, coding ED accounts, supporting during low staffing timeframes, or serving as their entire coding department.

Offering HIPAA-compliant electronic access to electronic medical records, Apollo's certified coding team brings experience to meet the specialty areas of our clients. These services are part of Apollo's comprehensive set of business solutions that range from targeted, customized fixes for a piece of the revenue cycle to end-to-end outsourcing of the entire revenue cycle.

Apollo's Coding for Reimbursement Solutions utilizes customized and proprietary software developed by Apollo's healthcare and IT experts. The service features detailed reporting of analysis, findings and claim resolution strategies so that providers have a roadmap for success.

"Healthcare providers need a comprehensive coding service that offers flexible pricing models. Our Coding for Reimbursement Solutions addresses that need and allows the hospital to remain focused on their patient care," says Bill Colgan, executive vice president for hospital services at Apollo Health Street.
